

White, Nicola; Griffiths, Ian (Ed.)

The Fashion Business. Theory, Practice, Image
Oxford (Berg) 2000, pp. 256, illustrations

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
List of Figures	xi
Introduction: The Fashion Business Theory, Practice, Image Nicola White and Ian Griffiths	1
 Part 1 Context
1 Fashion :Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow Valerie Steele	7
 Part 2 Theory and Culture
2 Cultures, Identities, Histories: Fashioning a Cultural Approach to Dress Christopher Breward	23
3 Fashion and Glamour Réka C.V. Buckley and Stephen Gundle	37
4 Ethnic Minimalism: A Strand of 1990s British Fashion Identity explored via a Contextual Analysis of Designs by Shirin Guild Amy de la Haye
 Part 3 Design for Industry
5 The invisible Man Litt Griffiths	69
6 Connecting Creativity Luigi Maramotti	91
7 The Chain Store Challenge Brian Godhold	103
 Part 4 Image and Marketing
8 The Hilfiger Factor and the Flexible Commercial World of Couture Lou Taylor	121
9 John Galliano; Modernity and Spectacle Caroline Evans	143
10 Luxury and Restraint: Minimalism in 1990s Fashion Rebecca Arnold	167
11 Italy: Fashion, Style and National Identity 1945-65 Nicola White	183
Index	205